

PORCH COLLAPSE ON SECOND FLOOR INJURES MANY

CRASH CAME FINAL EVENT OF INITIATION WEEK AT MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Oct. 15. (AP)—Seventeen young women students of Blue Mountain College today were in hospitals at New Albany, Miss., with broken bones and other injuries and more than a score others were under treatment at the college here for less severe hurts—the result of the collapse of a second story porch of a school dormitory last night.

A section of the flooring gave way during the final event of "initiation week," a student custom to induct freshmen into activities of college life.

Some fifty girls had crowded on the porch to witness the festivities within the dormitory. Suddenly about 20 feet of the floor collapsed and the half hundred students were hurled with the debris down about 20 feet to the ground. College officials with other members of the student body extricated the victims, and the more seriously hurt were taken in ambulances to hospitals at New Albany.

Reports from New Albany said that while a number of the young women were severely injured it was expected all would recover.

Many Injured in Georgia Accident

QUITMAN, Ga., Oct. 15.—(AP)—A cry of "snake" at Oak Hill school five miles from here today resulted in the injury of 20 pupils and the superintendent as a porch collapsed.

G. P. Gunnels, the superintendent, crawled beneath the porch to investigate and the children crowded up out of harm's way. The porch collapsed burying the superintendent, who was hurt seriously, and brought here for treatment, and physicians went to the scene to treat others.

Mules! Mules!

We will have in Corsicana Saturday, Oct. 19, load of fine mules, ages 4 to 8 years; all sound and well broke. These mules will be at Holloway's Shop on 10th Street. All stock sold under guarantee as represented. Will trade or sell. Be there and see them.

NEW DIVORCE ARGUMENTS
HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Rev. Dr. Percy G. Kammerer, Episcopal dean of Trinity Cathedral, Pittsburg, is of the opinion that where there are no children there is no reason why a divorce should not be granted by mutual consent. He gave his views in an address before the synod of the province of Washington.

KILLER ELEPHANT WAS KILLED NEAR KENEDY WEDNESDAY

GRAVE FOR GIANT PACHY- DERM PREPARED; DEATH PARADE IS DRAMATIC

KENEDY, Oct. 16 (AP)—Black Diamond, killer elephant, is dead. The nine-ton murderer died at 2:15 p. m. today when the fifth rifle bullet entered his body.

The huge beast was chained to three trees in a pasture two miles west of here, and five marksmen, using high powered rifles, comprised the firing squad which took his life.

Former Trainer Gives Data On Elephant

Black Diamond, giant elephant under sentence of death, would have been 32 years old next spring, according to H. D. Curley, Prickett, his trainer for eight years, and who stated that he had been known to the elephant for about twenty years.

According to Prickett, the animal was imported to this country by the Gentry Brothers Dog and Pony Shows as a baby elephant, and was exhibited by that circus for a number of years. Later the beast was bought by the Alf T. Wingling Shows, a concern operated by a brother of John T. Wingling.

R. L. Atterbury was the next owner according to the trainer, who sold him to W. P. Hall, but he was bought back, finally selling him to Al G. Barnes, the present owner.

Prickett's Version Of Elephant Attack

At the request of several of the natives of Mrs. Eva Donohoe, who was killed by the elephant, Black Diamond, early Saturday afternoon, H. D. Curley, Prickett, former trainer of the animal, gave his version of the accident late Monday afternoon as he lay in his bed in the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic, suffering from numerous bruises and a broken wrist received in the same attack of the elephant.

Prickett's story was as follows: "There was a car parked straight along the curb and another behind it parked at an angle and Mrs. Donohoe was standing between the two cars talking to me. I was standing by the side of Diamond, and Jack Grady, his keeper, was in front of him, when he suddenly caught me in the back with his tusks and tossed me over one of the cars. My body struck the far edge of the top of the car, and I struck my head against the door of another car as I toppled on over. Diamond then struck Mrs. Donohoe either with his tusks or with the iron bar that is on them, catching her on the side of the head, and she fell to the ground with an arm upraised over her head.

"I ran around the cars, and that is when I found out that my wrist was hurt. Diamond butted one of the cars trying to get it out of his way so that he could get to Mrs. Donohoe, and Mr. Griffin had started in after her when the car rolled in his way. He ran around the car and caught Mrs. Donohoe by her arms and pulled her out of the way of the elephant. When he got her onto the sidewalk, someone helped him take her on upon the lawn.

Keeper Fights Beast
"All this time Grady was fighting the elephant for all he was worth and hooked him twice but he shook loose. I went over to where Mr. Griffin was and stayed there until they put her in an ambulance.

"I saw the whole thing, and I was not excited for I have been around the animals too long, and Mr. Griffin is the only one who touched her until she was out of danger.

"Some one had run down to the lot and told Jackson, superintendent of elephants what had happened, and he came up to where the accident happened as fast as he could on a horse, circled around after he saw what had happened and went and got Ruth, one of the little females, that the herd will follow and ordered her hooked on to Diamond. There were two elephants chained to him all the time, and there always are when he is out of the car and not staked out on the lot. They took Diamond on down to the lot, watered him, and then took him back to the cars.

"After further questioning he declared that the beast was known as a 'runaway' elephant since he was a baby. He stated that he had run away twice while he was keeping him, once near Earth, Texas and another time when near the Waco river. He said he was the same elephant that ran away near San Antonio in 1925.

Bought By Circus In 1927.
Ben Austin of San Antonio bought Black Diamond for the Al G. Barnes show in 1927 from Prickett's brother-in-law, the former trainer asserted for $3,000. He said that if the big fellow had not been known for a runaway, he would have brought about $10,000.

He said that he asked no permission from the show to handle the elephant and none was given; Jack Grady was nominally in charge. He said he had no connection with the circus.

Those present during the refusal and questioning were W. T. Griffin, C. D. Speed, Gus Speed and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mahan.

JUNIOR HIGH IS STILL UNDEFEATED IN JUNIOR LEAGUE

In a double header football attraction at Tiger Field Wednesday afternoon the Sam Houston eleven downed the Robert E. Lee gridsters 31-0 and the Junior High School went into the lead of the Junior football league, sponsored by the local Y. M. C. A., by handing the William B. Travis a 12 to 0 reverse.

Both games were interesting, according to reports of the game, and some good plays were uncorred by all teams.

The first round of competition among the teams will conclude with games Monday afternoon and the winner of the first half will be decided on a percentage basis. Junior high school with two victories, seems the certain winner of the initial half.

Standing of teams after Wednesday encounters follow:

Junior High School W. L. Pct.
Sam Houston 1 1 .500
William B. Travis 1 1 .500
Robert E. Lee 0 2 .000

that he could keep Black Diamond under control, and he was later assisted by Jackson, chief elephant man. He attributed the attack to jealousy when asked to explain the accident.

After further questioning he declared that the beast was known as a 'runaway' elephant since he was a baby. He stated that he had run away twice while he was keeping him, once near Earth, Texas and another time when near the Waco river. Roaming the Realm of County Sports

By DELMORE OLSEN.

Three interesting football clashes are slated for Navarro county eleven Friday afternoon, the Corsicana Tigers take on their old rival, Allen Academy at Tiger Field, the State Home plays the Italy team in an 'intersections' clash at the State Home field, and the Hubbard aggregation invades the domain of the Kerens Bobcats.

From advance indications, the Tigers have the advantage over the Allen Academy gridsters on Tiger Field. The team has shown considerable improvement since the first district game against the Hillsboro Eagles last Friday afternoon, and should give the Academy gridsters a very uncomfortable time.

Waco will scout the Tigers in the game, and it is possible that Paul Tyson, master mind of the Waco Jungle Beasts, will be in the grandstand watching the melee. The Waco team realizes that the Tigers of Navarro county will be their hardest opponents for the district title and will spend several hours of concentrated practice and thinking before their game in Waco November 1. One thing Tyson knows for sure, and that is that the famous spin play upon which he has based his attack in the past will be no good against the Tigers. It is a spin for one quarter last year when the Waco team made all their touchdowns, and then was effectively stopped by the Corsicana team.

The Italy team is of uncertain quantity for the fray with the State Home Lads Friday, however, it is understood that the Italy gridsters know something about the game as it should be played and will give the Lads a great fight. The Lads are favored to win the contest as it is played on their own ground.

Hubbard held the Hillsboro Eagles to a 12 all tie in their annual game two weeks ago and are reported to be in good condition for the game with the Kerens Bobcats in Kerens Friday afternoon. The Kerens team lost to Waxahachie earlier in the season and then held the Odd Fellow eleven to a scoreless tie last Thursday afternoon. Both teams have fared well against Class A competition and should have a great time together Friday afternoon.

The initial game of the 1929-30 basketball season was played at the Y. M. C. A. court Wednesday afternoon between the Corsicana Tigers reserves and Blooming Grove. No score of the game was kept as both teams were handicapped by injuries and illness. The Tigers go to Blooming Grove Friday night to return the contest. Coach Douglas gave every man on his squad a chance to show off in the contest and is gradually fashioning an offense for the coming season.

Bruce Jeffers and Hugh McDowell, both star players on Class B aggregations in Navarro county last year, are showing up good on the front line and will probably see a lot of service in the coming hard-board campaign. Hubert Wolley, six foot and some odd recruit, is showing great improvement and should make the Tigers a valuable man in the next three years he will be eligible for the team. Coach Douglas is spending considerable time with his charges, giving them valuable hints on goal shooting and floor work.

Intensive practice will be meted out to his charges for several weeks including several scraps with Class B teams, and with the addition of lettermen after the close of the close of the football season, Coach "Doug" will begin his drive for the district title, which, by the way, is going to be a great task. With three or four lettermen returning, he will be faced by the fast Earleston quintet in the district tourney who gave the Tigers a great fight last year and will be practically intact for this year's bid for the title.

Class B teams in Navarro county are beginning to make preparations for the long hardwood derby

AXE IS USED BY SEVENTY-YEAR OLD WOMAN IN MURDER

WHITE HAired WIFE OF 49
YEARS CONFESSES KILLING
78 YEAR OLD HUSBAND

SUMMIT, N. J., Oct. 16. (AP)—Mrs. Laura Mathilda Titus, white haired and wrinkled by seventy years of life, today killed her 78 year old husband with an axe.

The victim, James Titus, married her 49 years ago. Mrs. Titus confessed the killing to police after brief questioning. The woman, weighing little more than 100 pounds, and hard of hearing, said she slew her husband because she couldn't endure any longer his abuses. He drank heavily, she said, and was intoxicated this morning when she struck him twice with an axe.

About 3:45 a. m., she said, her husband got up and went into the yard. He returned about a half hour later and asked her when she was going to get up, pulled the bed covers off her and went down stairs.

Debates Murder
Shortly afterwards Mrs. Titus got up and went downstairs where she found her husband lying on the floor of the living room. She sat down at a writing desk where she could watch the prostrate form of her husband and debated with herself whether she should kill the man whom she married in Milltown in 1880.

"Will I, or won't I?" she asked herself. "God above, must I go through today what I have been through for the last week and four days?" she said in telling of the matter.

"I will do it," she concluded, "if I go to jail for life for it." Then she went into the yard and got the axe, the woman told. Upon her return to the house she laid the weapon down and picked it up twice before she struck her husband. She struck the second blow, she stated, "to make sure he was not breathing."

Her next move was to call neighbors, who in turn notified a physician and police. Mrs. Titus had lived with her husband in Summit for more than thirty years. He had been employed by a local ice company until a few years ago when he was pensioned.

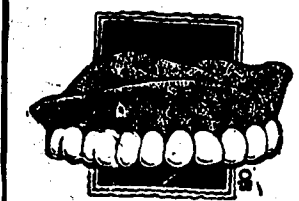

More and More Colds
Treated Externally
Growing Demand for Vicks VapoRub
Compels Another Increase in Famous Slogan

A generation ago, when Vicks VapoRub was originated, the idea of treating colds without "dosing" was almost unheard of. Today more and more colds are treated externally, and the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing".

As a result, the demand for Vicks has increased so rapidly that it is again necessary to change its familiar slogan. First announced when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Used Yearly," this famous slogan was raised to "21 Million" a short time ago. Once more the figure has been outgrown, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly" in the United States alone.

Mothers of young children especially appreciate Vicks, because there's nothing to swallow and, of course, nothing to upset delicate stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do. Just rubbed on, this modern vaporizing ointment acts through the skin like a poultice or plaster, and at the same time it gives off medicated vapors which are inhaled direct to the inflamed air passages.

Year after year the popularity of Vicks has spread all over the world until it is now the family standby for all colds—adults as well as children's—in more than 60 countries.

COMING TO PALACE SUNDAY

Charles E. Mack, George Moran, Evelyn Brent in a scene from "The Two Black Crows" first talking production "Why Bring That Up?" A Paramount Picture

The suspicion lurks in the minds of present day theatre audiences that the older generation was quite naive and uncritical. In other words it seems that audiences today, while still prone to weep, cheer and laugh, are much more critical about their reactions. In comedy this particularly true. For the critical attitude has spelled the death of the gag-man. Merely saying funny things no longer is the satisfying balm. Audiences demand more. There must be some one other quality to lift the comedy above the plane of the what once was called slap-stick. It is the art, and the word art is used advisedly, that draws the sharp line of distinction between a Charlie Chaplin and his imitator. It is the difference between slap-stick gags, and rich humor through which a strain of pathos is effectively blended. In the field of light entertainment, it is this same quality that makes an artist of an Al Jolson, a Maurice Chevalier and a Helen Morgan.

Following this trend of thought, the names of two comedians comes to mind. Two men, employing black make-up, whose names are almost household words. They are Moran and Mack, popularly called the Two Black Crows whose hilarious phonograph records are known to most everyone. It is reported that more than three million records of their dialogue have been sold throughout the country. Truly an astounding figure. But the question that immediately arises is why the great popularity? The answer while obvious is not easy to define. For their special, humorous dialogue, he classified the Two Black Crows will be at the Palace Sunday.

THREE DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS IN MEETING AT FAIR

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Politicians, temperance workers and farmers were banded together today in a common cause—to make Thursday at the State Fair a success.

Today has been officially designated as legislators' and state officials' day, W. C. T. U. day, and Gregg county day, not to mention Dallas County Women's Democratic association day and Texas Feeders-Breeders day.

Honors were divided between the Agricultural and Mechanical colleges of Oklahoma and Texas in judging Percheron horses. The Oklahoma institution entered the grand champion stallion, while the Texas mare entry took the grand championship.

A yearling jack, owned by J. W. Shepard of Plano and named for Dallas mayor "J. Waddy Tate," was selected for grand champion. Mr. Shepard presented the jack to Mayor Tate.

Making the highest score yet recorded in the band contests, the North Texas Junior Agricultural college or Arlington was awarded first place in the Junior college band competition. The band scored 93 points.

FALL CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR WOMEN FRIDAY

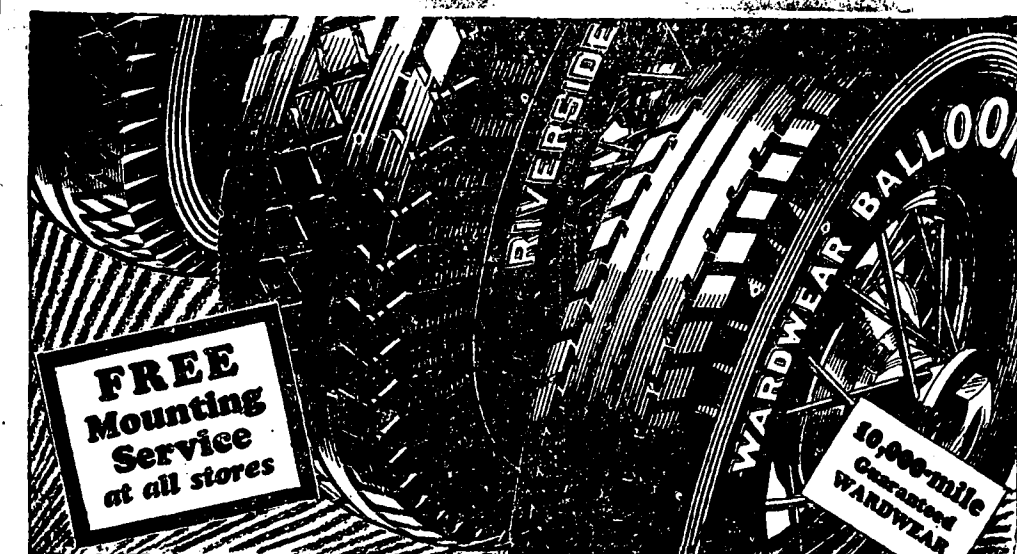

The women of the Episcopal church will make their fall corporate communion on Friday, Oct. 18, St. Luke's Day. Instead of on St. Matthew's Day, as heretofore. This is the day on which all the women of the church throughout the diocese gather together and present their united thank offering.

This offering supports over 250 women workers in the mission fields, helps to build churches, schools and hospitals, and also helps in the care of retired women missionaries. It is hoped that every woman in the parish will make an effort to be present at this service. The service will be in St. John's church at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

IDLENESS AND PARASITISM GET BIBLE'S CONDEMNATION

Work is a Teaching of Scripture—the Religion of the Carpenter—John Eliot and the Indians—Peril of "White Collar Jobs"

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

White collars are a real peril to national robustness. Too many young men want positions—not jobs, but positions—that will not soil their hands or their clothes. One reason why such a tremendous tide has turned toward the colleges since the war, say educators, is that youth has come to consider this an easy and pleasant route to prosperity without manual labor. An alarming proportion of college graduates become bond salesmen. Multitudes of boys choose these white-collar positions, at poor pay and with no future, because of sort of snobbishness which looks down upon overall jobs.

Our nation was not built by such. In new and growing countries, idleness is deemed a disgrace. Just as workers are the backbone of the social structure, so loafers are a recognized peril. The glory and dignity of honest labor are beliefs inwrought in the very structure of our New World. And the duty of work is an essential part of the Christian ideal in which the country is established. The Bible singularly stresses and exalts the duty of toil. One reason for this doubtless is the recognized truth that an inevitable by-product of work is character. The sturdy virtues wait on industry.

When the Indians Grumbled While the Bible offers no hard-and-fast social system, and while the various radical movements which have usually sought Scriptural warrant for their teachings would have difficulty in citing chapter and verse, it is clear that, from first to last, the Book does insist upon work.

When John Eliot, "the apostle to the Indians," was teaching the Delegation to the Algonquins he began to expound the Sabbath Day as a rest day. "Ugh! That's easy—Indian doesn't work any day," commented one of his hearers. Whereupon the wise preacher began to stress the first part of the commandment, "Six days shalt thou labor." That teaching was not so popular.

What I Found In Nazareth Of course, the whole idea of the Bible will wrap up in the example of the Saviour. Jesus was a working-man. We cannot escape the vast implications of the truth that the world's Redeemer was a calloused-handed carpenter. My memory of Nazareth all center in a quest I undertook, upon my first visit, many years ago, to find a carpenter shop of the ancient sort.

When I discovered one it proved to be a picture of the labor of the Lord. On the floor sat the carpenter, using both hands and feet as he wielded his few primitive tools. His products were simple the immortal on of plows and the wooden yokes. The Teacher who said "My yoke is easy" had fashioned skillfully many a smooth yoke as he sat from dawn to sunset amidst the fragrant chips on the floor of his carpenter shop.

"This is the Gospel of Labor:—Ring it, ye bells of the Kirk—The Lord of Love Come down from above To dwell with the men who work."

No effeminate, stained-glass figure was the Son of Man, but a robust, hard-muscled, sweating fellow of the toiling masses. The modern mood of white-collar snobbishness would feel itself superior to the world's Supreme Figure were it to see Him as He was in Nazareth and Capernaum, or trudging lustily the dusty roads of Galilee and Judea. The "leisure classes" may not understand Jesus; but Jesus understands the working people; and there is fullness of fellowship in His cry, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

When CHILDREN Need a Laxative

"We have used Theodor's Black-Draught in our family for nineteen years. I have found it of great help in raising my family."

"I have given it to all six of my children. Whenever they complain of upset stomach, or begin to look pale and sickly, I make a tea of Black-Draught and begin giving it to them. In a day or two they are all right."

"I give it to them for constipation, and my husband and I both take it. I always give it for colds in winter, for I believe a way to prevent them is to keep the system clean."—Mrs. Doshie Terry, 1205 4th Ave., Decatur, Ala.

reading Christians throughout the ages. "It is a perilous hour in any young man's life," said Henry Ward Beecher, "when he sits down to consider how he may get money without working for it." Easy money is hard on the character. It distorts all sense of proportionate values. And it sets money above manhood. Sound thinking and righteous living seem strangely related to honest industry.

One great glory of work is that it is service: the worker is producing something that meets the world's needs. Jesus expressed the central principle of His life in the words that He had come "not to be ministered unto, but to minister." Malbille D. Babcock amplified the thought in the memorable lines:—

"O Lord, I pray That for this day I may not swerve By foot or hand From Thy command, Not to be served, but to serve."

"This, too, I pray, That for this day No love of ease Nor good intent, Not to be pleased, but to please."

"And if I may, I'd have this day Strength from above To set my heart In heavenly art, Not to be loved, but to love."

Doctors Disagree

When children are irritable and peevish, grind their teeth and sleep restlessly, have digestive pains and disturbances, lack of appetite, and have itching eyes, nose and fingers, doctors will not always agree that they are suffering from worms. Many mothers, too, will not believe that their carefully brought up children can have worms. The fact remains that these symptoms will yield, in a great majority of cases, to a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the sure expellant of round and pin worms. If your child has any of these symptoms, try this harmless, old-fashioned remedy, which you can get at 25c per bottle from

Revival Meeting Opens at Wortham

WORTHAM, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—reparations have been in progress for several weeks for the revival meeting which began Sunday at the Central Presbyterian church. The Rev. E. C. Carrell of Seymour, Texas, is doing the preaching and Rev. Alvin L. Carter of Ehren, Fla., is director of the music. The choir has been enlarged to care for the extra singers. Pastor C. E. Richeson is chairman of all the committees, and his subcommittees, have been made for what is expected to be one of the best revivals of years.

FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE ASKS BUYER LIQUOR BE INDICTED

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—The October grand jury of the United States district court here today was under instruction from Judge Charles I. Dawson to indict, if the evidence warranted, the buyer as well as the seller of liquor. Attacking the "so-called good citizen" who patronizes bootleggers, Judge Dawson, former Kentucky attorney general, declared the widespread impression it is not against the law to purchase liquor is erroneous.

Referring to a recent decision of the circuit court of appeals of the second district at Philadelphia, Judge Dawson said he had not read that court's opinion, but it was his opinion "that what that court really decided was that one who purchases liquor is not such an abettor or abettor of the seller as to make him guilty as a seller under the federal law."

To that extent, Judge Dawson

METHODISTS MAY ABANDON MOST OF JUNIOR COLLEGES

DALLAS, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—Abandonment of most of the junior colleges in Texas supported by the Methodist church was foreseen to discuss the educational situation. Several of those attending the meeting indicated the state had practically eliminated further competition on the part of junior church schools by entering that field.

Reports from ten college presidents were made. A set of recommendations will be presented at the North Texas Conference in McKinney Oct. 24.

"We must face our task seriously and with an open mind," Bishop John M. Moore said. "I am, of course, interested in our past educational accomplishments and not in the means used in attaining those accomplishments."

In listing schools which should be paramount in the sections where they are located, he mentioned Leon Morris College at Jacksonville, Westmoreland College at San Antonio and McMurry College at Abilene.

said in his charge, "I agree with the opinion, but if that opinion holds it is not an offense against the national prohibition act for one to purchase liquor without a permit and not on a prescription, then I cannot agree with it, because I have no doubt whatever that the Volstead act intended to and does, in express terms, make it illegal for individuals to purchase liquor for personal consumption for beverage purposes."

ELECTRICITY

"The most amazing Nation in the world!" That is the expression most commonly used by civilized people all over the world in referring to the United States.

Electricity is the amazing factor responsible for the magic transition of the United States. Especially transmission line electric service.

Transmission line electric service has revolutionized Texas. It has brought the conveniences of electricity within the reach of the homes of even the smallest of Texas communities. The Texas Power & Light Company pioneered this type of electric service in Texas.

Electricity burns the dim light in the baby's nursery in his first hours of infancy, and from then on through life diligently serves him in countless ways. First it frees his mother's hands from the drudgery of housework and wills to her those precious hours of companionship which have such powerful influence on his life. It saves his mother's strength and preserves her youth along with his. It cooks his food, and then preserves it by electric refrigeration. Then as he attains maturity the work of his hands is multiplied a thousandfold by the efficiencies of electricity. The comforts and conveniences of his home will be magnified by the use of electric appliances.

And if he lives in one of the communities served by the Texas Power & Light Company, he will find that as time goes on the use of electricity will be more and more economical. Ever since this Company started its transmission line service to Texas cities and towns, seventeen years ago, electric rates have been voluntarily lowered a number of times—as rapidly as the great economies of this system have made it possible.

For the past year and a half the management of this Company has been working on a revision of its rate which would make possible a wider and more extensive use of electricity in the homes of its customers at a cost lower than has ever been possible heretofore. This new rate is now in effect. You can now use double the amount of electric energy which you have been using at but a slight increase in your aggregate monthly bill. This new rate will permit you to use double electricity. Enjoy the benefits of cheaper electricity. Let "The Economy Twins" serve you.

EMHOUSE, Oct. 17.—(SP)—The school opened here Monday, Oct. 14. The opening had been delayed some time by the building not being finished. There is still some work to be done on the building, but none that will interfere with the school work. We are expecting a good school year even though we have a late start.

Rev. Copeland is preaching each night this week at the Methodist Protestant church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the services.

Dr. McMillan of Tehuacan will be here Sunday to preside at the conference of the church and will preach at the 11 o'clock hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheely Anderson are the proud parents of a fine baby boy who made his arrival Wednesday, Oct. 16.

James Wesner of Frankston and Chester Bristow of La Rue spent the week-end with their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jist.

Mrs. Williams of Tupelo was an Emhouse visitor Monday, having accompanied his daughter, Miss Corinne Williams who will have a music class here.

The Parent-Teacher association met Tuesday afternoon in the first session of the school year. Regular meeting days of the first and third Tuesday of each month were set. Plans for a membership drive were formed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins and Anna, Mr. Heaser of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Ras Sheffield and daughter of Desdemona, Arthur Reed and children of Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Castellaw of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Griffin of Dallas, Mrs. Jim Gillen and son, Crawford, Mrs. Polly Sowell and Mrs. Ed Carroll of Blooming Grove, and Mrs. J. H. Williams of Ennis.

The Forty-two club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Watson. After the usual number of games, refreshments consisting of chicken salad, crackers, potato chips, cookies and grape ice were served. High score was won by Bessie Mae Watkins.

The Thursday afternoon club met with Miss Evelyn Mitchell. Out prize went to Mrs. Hazel Watkins. High score prize for guests was won by Miss Bessie Watson. Delicious refreshments were served to the club.

W. O. Russell and family were the recipients of a large shower after the loss of their home by fire.

RICE

RICE, Oct. 17.—(SP)—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry of Dawson spent the first of the week here with their daughter, Mrs. B. H. Clark.

Miss Betriola Hobbs has gone to Sand's Chapel where she will teach school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cardwell have gone to Marlin where they will spend several days taking treatment.

Mrs. Frank Loutonsky of Big Springs is here this week the guest of Mrs. J. P. South.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. South left Tuesday for Marlin where they will spend several days taking treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall and children of Corsicana visited Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hall Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. McGee of Corsicana was a guest of Mrs. J. P. Lackey Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Hall spent the week-end in Roane the guest of Miss Lillie Thornton.

Mrs. J. B. Fortson of Corsicana visited here Wednesday.

A number of people attended the Al G. Barnes circus in Corsicana Saturday night.

W. F. Hodge has a fine exhibit of honey and honey products entered in the apary department of the state fair. Mr. Hodge has won first prize on his exhibit for the past four years. In addition to these he has many other prizes.

Roy Hall was in Corsicana on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson attended the state fair at Dallas Wednesday.

A. Aron was a Dallas fair visitor Sunday.

C. B. Turner returned Saturday from Dallas where he had been serving on the federal grand jury.

Mrs. W. J. Collins returned Tuesday from her daughters at Barry.

Misses Maxine and Lucille Parrish spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Parrish.

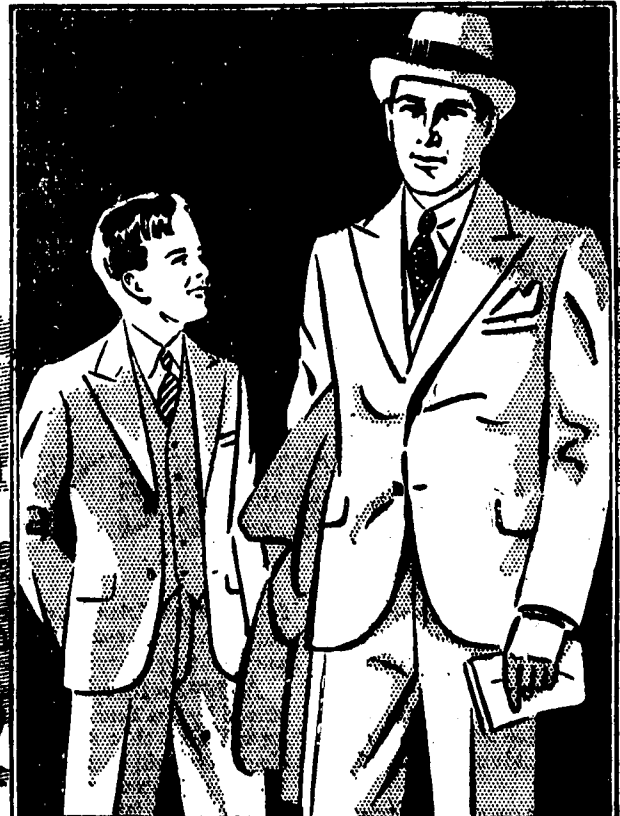

Miss Nancy Owen spent Sunday with home folks.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve chicken dinner Saturday, Oct. 19 at the brick garage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Montgomery, Mary Lynn Owen and Florence DeRusha visited the Ennis fair last Friday.

Mrs. R. M. Hartley of Blooming Grove is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. M. Montgomery.

Mrs. Tom Ray, 53, of Wortham, route one, died in the Navarro county hospital Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock following an illness of six weeks, and the funeral will probably be held Thursday, although definite funeral arrangements have not been perfected Wednesday morning.

Surviving are her husband, one son, Tom Ray, Houston; three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Beshears and Mrs. Emma Beshears, both of Colorado, Texas; and Mrs. Wiley Dyer, Corsicana; parents, Mrs. J. W. Clary, Mexia and Mrs. Naomi Blackburn, Kears; two stepsons, Ewell and Sammie Ray, both of Corsicana, and other relatives. The funeral will be directed by the Sutherland Funeral Home.

ODD FELLOWS NAME OFFICERS AND WILL MEET IN CORSICANA

CLEBURNE, Oct. 16.—(Sp.)—Corsicana will be host to Odd Fellows at their grand encampment in 1930. Announcement of the selection of the convention city was made yesterday by tellers who counted votes cast in Monday's encampment.

New officers elected were: grand patriarch, C. A. Gerloff, Dallas; grand scribe, E. Q. Vestal, Dallas; grand treasurer, F. B. Quayle, Ft. Worth; grand senior warden, Elmer R. Anderson, Plainview; grand junior warden, I. N. Webster, Fort Worth; grand high priest, W. C. Townes, Amarillo. T. M. Thompson, Bay City, was appointed grand marshal, C. A. Burgess, Dallas, grand sentinel, and C. R. Hoskins, Gonzales, deputy grand sentinel.

A stirring tribute to the organization in Texas was paid by Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller. Mr. Miller traced the organization of Odd Fellows, and gave the outstanding accomplishments of the order since its founding.

FLOWERS, SHRUBS AND TREES

A HOTBED FOR THE GARDEN.

A hotbed greatly increases the scope of the home gardener's operations and enables him to have flowers and vegetables at an earlier date than he can expect if he does not have one.

Placing a hotframe over the hotbed confines the warmth to a limited space and gives conditions for growth which approximate the ideal outdoor conditions for growth which generally occur later in the spring.

The heat for a hotbed frequently is furnished by a layer of decaying manure in a pit underneath the soil used for the crop. The glass sash which covers the frame confines the heat given off by the manure and furnished by the sun. The sash serves further to maintain a humid condition in the frame desirable for growth.

For the home gardener fall is a good time to make a hotframe. The standard sash used to cover such frames measures six feet by three feet; hence the frame should be six feet wide and any multiple of three feet long. The frame may be of wood, concrete or brick. Planks two inches thick make a substantial frame, but one inch material can be used where a less permanent frame will serve. Make the frame 10 inches high in front and 18 inches high in the rear; this gives an eight-inch slope to the sash when they rest on top of the frame. A pit 30 inches deep is required, as 24 inches of manure and six inches of soil must be placed in the excavation. After settling, the level of the bed will be a little lower than the surface of the surrounding soil, which is desirable.

In a well constructed hotbed the frame should extend to the bottom of the pit, but good results are obtained where the frame extends only a few inches below the surface of the soil. In the latter case the frame can be built before the pit is dug, but the excavation should not extend to the limits of the frame and thus weaken its foundation. Also, a firm soil is essential in this method.

The frame should be built so the long dimension of the sash will slope eight inches and to the south. Full sunlight throughout the day is desirable. If the back side of the hotbed is located three feet from and to the south of a fence or building, this protects the frame from cold winds and also gives a reflection of sunlight to the hotbed.

After the frame is made and the pit dug, put the sash on the frame to keep out the snow and rain of the winter. Early in the spring put the manure and soil in the pit. The good soil that is to be used in growing crops should be held in a frost-free place over winter, so that it will be in good condition when needed.

Freestone County Farmers Offered Waco Milk Route

TEAGUE, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—A special offer has been made to the farmers of Freestone county through the Mexia chamber of commerce by Secretary Landrum of a milk route to Waco via Mexia. Landrum informs us if we get the milk to Mexia the Mexia chamber of commerce will transport the milk to Waco without charge to the farmer.

It is probable that much interest will be manifested in this section in the project.

Tehuacana, Small Incorporated Town, Very Progressive

TEHUACANA, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—Tehuacana, smallest incorporated city of Limestone county, has been assured natural gas and next Saturday will vote on a $15,000 bond issue for a new waterworks. The Lone Star Gas company asked for 50 customers to extend its mains to the famous hill, once laid out to be the capital of Texas. The people of the city signed up 60.

The present water system is inadequate and city councilmen claim that the new system will more than pay for itself in reduced fire insurance.

The McElwath Construction company is paving Highway No. 7 through Tehuacana, cotton receipts have been heavy, and Westminster College, located here, is doing well.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends, neighbors and every one whose sympathy, kindness and help as graciously offered has helped us so much to bear the loss of our dear son and brother. We are also very grateful for the tribute of many beautiful flowers. May God bless and be with you all.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morgan of Barry were in Corsicana Wednesday.

DRYS FEAR NEW LAW WOULD MAKE ENFORCEMENT HARD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(Sp.)—F. Scott McBride, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, in a statement today said it was an open question whether the Sheppard bill to make buyers of liquor equally guilty with sellers would help enforcement.

"Many drys are persuaded that it would be a hindrance rather than a help," he said. "Rarely is a sale of liquor made in the presence of a third party. The conviction of the seller must almost invariably depend upon the testimony of the buyer. To accomplish the conviction of the buyer it would be necessary to grant immunity to the seller."

He added the measure had not been considered formally by either the executive or administrative committees of the league, but it appeared to him the importance of the matter had been exaggerated. "Its effect on the enforcement of prohibition would be very slight," he continued. "The real issue between the wets and the drys is prohibition and its enforcement. To back up the administration in its aggressive enforcement program should be the goal of the drys."

HOOPER SELECTS MAN. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(Sp.)—President Hoover is understood to have decided upon Dr. Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College, as chairman of the prospective commission to study the advisability of turning over surface rights of federal lands to the several states.

Railroad Commissioner Lon A. Smith was reported slightly improved at Austin Wednesday morning. F. P. Pierson, deputy oil and gas supervisor of this district, was advised. Mr. Pierson will leave Corsicana for Austin tonight.

Barn On Heeler Farm at Richland Destroyed by Fire

RICHLAND, Oct. 16.—(Sp.)—A barn on Charles Heeler farm about three miles west of here was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin Tuesday night. C. C. Williams was living on the farm and he lost about 500 bushels of corn, 150 bales of hay and other feed.

IN MEMORIAM. The subject of this sketch, M. H. Varner, was born at Italy, Texas, May 27, 1888, and died at the Navarro County Hospital Sept. 20, 1929, aged 41 years, three months and 24 days. He was laid to rest the following day at the Post Oak cemetery, near Roane, with a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends present.

Weep not, loved ones, but look up to the Comforter who will comfort thee. He leaves a devoted wife and 10 children and one grandchild, one brother and three sisters. M. G. Varner, Houston; Mrs. W. H. METHODISTS HAVE MORE SCHOOLS THAN FINANCES PERMIT

DALLAS, Oct. 16.—(Sp.)—Subject to approval by the five Methodist conferences, any new moves in the church's educational campaign hereafter must first pass muster of the Texas Methodist educational commission.

At a meeting here the commission recommended that because the church has more institutions than "present financial support justifies," the commission should be given the privilege of examining any proposal to establish a new institution, or to raise additional educational funds.

Recommendations of the body may be vetoed by any one of the conferences. They will first be considered by the North Texas conference at McKinney, Oct. 24.

The commission voiced its approval of two campaigns for $1,500-$2,000 each, for S. M. U. at Dallas and for Texas Woman's College at Fort Worth. Other recommendations were for a more unified program of "Christian Education" and for consolidation of all colleges into one system.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. McEntire of Barry were Corsicana visitors Wednesday morning.

PURE OIL'S JARMAN WELL REDUCES FLOW; BELIEVED SANDED

VAN WELL MADE ABOUT 8,000 BARRELS PER DAY DURING PART OF MONDAY

GRAND SALINE, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Pure Oil Company's new oil well, the W. T. Jarman No. 1, eight miles east of here, which averaged 8,000 barrels a day for a time yesterday morning, dropped back to 125 barrels an hour before the day was over. The well was brought in Monday. Oil men think that when the well is properly cleaned it will produce much more.

Although gaged at the rate of 8,000 barrels a day no accurate check has been made on the Jarman test of the Pure Oil Company near Van in Van Zandt county, according to reports received in Corsicana. It is thought that the agitation of the liquid in removing the drill stem from the hole preparatory to bailing started the well to flowing Monday.

It was reported to have suddenly choked off to a rate of about 125 barrels an hour early Tuesday, but several operators believe that the hole had become sanded, and that as soon as it can be properly cleaned out and the well bailed in properly that it will be a big producer. It was considered remarkable that the well could clean itself through the nine inch casing used. No salt water was reported and the gravity of the oil is about 37 degrees.

With about 11,000 barrels storage erected now, and enough tanks to raise the total to 20,000 under construction, the Pure has ordered a 55,000 barrel tank shipped to the scene of the test from Mexico and it will also be rushed to completion.

The Pure has a 17,000 acres block surrounding the test, while the Humble has 15,000 acres to the north. Other companies, including the Texas, Sun and Shell, are also reported to have large holdings.

John Hooser is reported to have closed a contract for a test near Ben Wheeler, and another test is scheduled to be started across the line in Smith county.

The top of the sand, thought to be the Woodbine, was found at 2662 and the total depth of the hole is 2710 feet.

Considerable activity is still being manifested in the unleased areas in the extreme eastern section of Navarro county and in the western part of Henderson county, as some operators believe that the formation continues in that direction. Lease operators are still busy completing blocks of acreage.

"DOC" WADDELL, KNOWN FAR AND WIDE AS CIRCUS PASTOR, REACHED CORSICANA TODAY

The Hotel Navarro register has it—"Doc Waddell" from "Everywhere," which interpreted is "Portsmouth, Ohio," where Doc was born, and "Columbus, Ohio," where he votes whenever he reaches the place before the polls close. Five years ago Waddell, as chaplain of the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, with sermons and all, rode into Corsicana on the back of his elephant, "Waddy." That's his conveyance and has been since 1908. Had to leave him this time back on the Dodson's World's Fair Shows (Doc is pastor of the canvas church with this caravan) at the Lufkin fair, suffering with appendicitis. "Gee, if the appendix has to be removed," whispers the general Doc, "I'd like to have the operation performed here. Would be a great sight. It is estimated to be eight feet in length."

Waddell tells of the memory-tribute services held at dawn yesterday morning on the Lufkin fair grounds by the 600 show folks on the Dodson Shows payroll for the camels, "Holy Moses," that dropped dead, and "Livingston," that deliberately committed suicide by drowning in the Lufkin county dipping vat. Not long ago, "Alice," well known breeding camel, died suddenly. Its baby, "Alzafar," named so by the Alzafar Temple Shriner at San Antonio last April, refused to leave the lifeless body of the mother and passed away of grief. Their bodies were placed in specially built caskets and shipped to the San Antonio winter quarters of the Dodson Shows and laid to rest in the burial plot therein.

The remains of "Holy Moses" and "Livingston" have been disposed of in the same way. "The entire drove of Dodson camels died of brook hearts," says Chaplain Waddell.

The Dodson Shows will exhibit here Oct. 21 to 29 for the American Legion. Rev. Waddell will no doubt, as everywhere he goes, be heard in local churches and schools and at lodges and clubs. Tuesday night, Oct. 29, at the Mexia fair through amplifiers, he will preach his famous sermon, "God's Wide Open." Also at the Cotton Palace at Waco the first of November. Rev. Waddell, who is of the M. E. conference, may hold "church" on the show grounds next Wednesday.

EVERLASTING GRATITUDE.

We have lived in and around Barry nearly all of our lives and thought that we knew how to appreciate the people here, but not until our recent loss in the losing of our home and its contents, together with our filling station last Wednesday night, did we really know how much our friends appreciate us.

Language is inadequate to express our gratitude for their help in this time of loss. Your many expressions of love as well as the many valuable donations only weld you to us the stronger.

May God bless each donor and may your donations be doubled and thrilled in prosperity during the coming years.

Yours gratefully,

CORSICANA FIRST BAPTIST FINANCIAL SHOWING IS GREAT

The First Baptist church of Corsicana made the greatest financial report in its history at the meeting of the annual association last week, according to an announcement made Tuesday morning by Rev. J. Howard Williams, pastor.

In discussing the report, Dr. Williams said that "the total of all gifts for the year was $130,546.74. It was also shown that we spent only $22,346 on ourselves and gave $108,200.74 to other causes. These outstanding figures include several large gifts, one of which was a $25,000 amount paid to Baylor University this year. Nor was the financial statement the only big one, for there were 226 additions during the year, 122 of them joining the church by baptism."

"The present membership of the church is shown as 2050 while the

Teague Got Big Rain on Monday

TEAGUE, Oct. 17.—(Sp.)—Heavy rains fell here Monday, breaking a drought of several weeks' duration. The rains, which were accompanied by strong winds, proved very injurious to open cotton; however, the bulk of the cotton has been picked.

As a whole the rains are very beneficial to this section, especially to cattlemen, and also to farmers in the planting of fall grains.

le and courageous" and the county commissioners.

A justice of the peace and two constables remain to be appointed for Burger. Those appointments can be made after martial law is lifted, General Walters said.

The new officers, the statement declared, are the kind of men and citizens Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio or any other city would like to have on its commission.

Ranger Captain Tom Hickman is to remain in charge of his force until the sheriff and police chief's departments are in operation, and two rangers are to be detailed for "indefinite" duty in the oil town.

Prisoners Still Held.

Twelve men held under general order six, which specified that all members of the entrenched criminal ring could be held until obedience to law had been restored, will not be freed when troops leave Burger. It was believed they would be held until they can be tried.

The twelve under general order six are: Cal Baird, former deputy sheriff; J. D. Lee, Blaine game, former policeman; Sam Jones, ousted deputy constable; John Harkness, John Ware, G. Louis Crim, LeRoy Dempsey, Don McCombs, H. O. Taylor, F. C. Cleveland and T. A. Board.

BURGER, Oct. 17.—The new broom had swept clean here today, and all of the county and city officials were expected to return to Burger tomorrow or Saturday.

In sending the troops here the district attorney John A. Holmes, said he resigned.

In sending the troops here the district attorney John A. Holmes, said he resigned.

With all of the old officers out, and most of them replaced by men approved by Calhoun, the troops were expected to return to their homes tomorrow or Saturday.

Ranger Made Sheriff.

C. O. Moore, Texas ranger, was made sheriff of the county yesterday by the county commissioners court, and Albert Mace, police chief at Mexia, was made chief of police here. Mace took over his job at Mexia in 1922 when the troops left there after quelling a situation similar to the one which existed here.

Preparations for departure of the troops are expected the moment the county commissioners round out their appointments. Two constables remain to be appointed here as well as a justice of the peace. In addition, a complete set of assistants to the new sheriff must be approved.

In the meantime, the district court grand jury and its criminalist, George W. Hoff, whose trial for possession of liquor was the first criminal trial in the county since the declaration of martial law, won an acquittal, and a similar case against L. W. Rook was immediately taken up.

No indication had been given as to the course of the grand jury's deliberations, but it was supposed the jurors were studying every scrap of evidence available bearing on the assassination of Holmes.

EAST VAN ZANDT COUNTY DISTRICT FEELS OIL BOOM

VAN, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Workmen rushed batteries of storage tanks to completion and today drillers prepared to move their rigs into the newly discovered oil territory east of here and the population of the town, already swelled from 20 to 1,500 in four days, continued to grow.

Pure Oil company's Jarman No. 1 well, which started the excitement when it came in Sunday, continued to produce better than 1,000 barrels of oil daily, and it was agreed the well had located a distinct oil structure in entirely virgin territory.

Impact of the boom on Van, a community on sandy dunes, two stores, a church, a school and twenty people was terrific. Last night approximately 1,500 people were in the town and the immediate vicinity. Homes, turned into eating houses in the once quiet town, were open all night, and temporary shacks housing small restaurants and hot dog and soft drink stands were springing up. Transients who had been in town on foot were of the boom were sleeping in automobiles, sheds, or any place they could find.

Van already has developed civic consciousness. Large signboards praise a postoffice, electricity and other conveniences.

Good for 1500 Barrels.

The discovery well made slightly over 1,500 barrels in heads yesterday and oil men expect it to settle down to a consistent production of 1,500 barrels daily. Ten steel storage tanks already are in place, and workmen are pushing a second battery of ten to completion. Each tank holds one thousand barrels, and four were full last night. Tanks with a capacity of 20,000 more barrels were in transit. Five big companies hold leases on approximately 17,000 acres about the discovery well, and land within a radius of two miles of the well was said to be leasing for between $200 and $2,000 per acre.

One of the omens which convinced oil men a real boom was due was the appearance on the scene of H. L. Tucker of Fort Worth, who made the Goldfield, Nev., rush, and established Tucker town near Mexia in the 1922. Tucker town in Powell county in 1922.

Tucker and his associates have leased surface rights for one mile on either side of the highway leading to the well and are establishing Tucker town. Last night there was a 60 by 60 foot dance pavilion on the property, and Tucker was reported to have sold 21 sub-leases.

To Discuss Curtailment.

EASTLAND, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Oil operators, lease owners and others interested in the development of the Hobbs area in Lea county, New Mexico, will meet at Russell, Oct. 22 for discussing curtailment of development to meet the wishes of

Former Corsicanan Now Prominent Oil Man, Visiting Here

Cyrus Bell, a prominent oil man of Los Angeles, Calif., but formerly a resident of Corsicana, is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. L. Bell, who is quite ill at her home, 711 West Second avenue.

Mr. Bell left Corsicana a number of years ago and cast his lot in California where he has prospered to a wonderful degree, being prominent in several different lines of the oil business in the Golden State. He is at the head of several companies operating in the various California oil fields.

Mr. Bell is very complimentary of the present Corsicanans in comparison with the city as he knew it some twenty years ago, and was kept busy Thursday greeting his numerous old friends who are all delighted to hear that he has met with success in California.

MORE ARRESTS ON PERJURY CHARGES IN ATTACK CASE NEAR

Intimations by District Attorney Buron Pitts that perjury charges would be filed against more witnesses in the case of Alexander Pantages, heightened interest today in the trial of the theatre magnate on charges of criminally attacking Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old daughter of the indicted Garland Biffie, first defense witness for Pantages, on a perjury charge.

Biffie was arrested after he testified he had overheard Miss Pringle say to Nicholas Duneav, a writer, just before she visited the theatre man's office on the day of the alleged attack, that Pantages "would be sorry" if he did not testify he had overheard her.

The state contends Duneav was not in the theatre at the time referred to.

Pantages Scored.

During testimony over the Biffie testimony, Pitts asserted that in all his experience he had never seen such cold-blooded, deliberate attempts to suborn perjury as have been made by Alexander Pantages and his son, Rodney, in this case.

Contention of defense attorneys that Biffie's arrest in the presence of other defense witnesses had "would be sorry" if he did not testify he had overheard her.

The state contends Duneav was not in the theatre at the time referred to.

Prosecution Conflicts.

Prosecution witnesses previously had testified they were in the room more than half an hour before the girl ran from the door into the hallway.

Under cross-examination by Deputy Prosecutor Robert Stewart, Heard admitted he had known Pantages for nine years and they were well enough acquainted to give each other the "high sign" when they met in the hallway.

Previous prosecution testimony that Miss Pringle was assisted from the little office by W. L. Gordon, a state witness, was hit by Heard, who said she was alone and standing before the office door when Gordon appeared on the scene.

Duneav, author of Miss Pringle's dance shift, next witness, identified a copy of the vaudeville act script and said he sold it to Mrs. Pringle for her daughter. Efforts of the defense to introduce the transcript into the evidence were overruled by the court. Duneav's testimony was brief, but he was ordered to remain in the witness room to be called later.

Leo Zlakot, groceryman of Garden Grove, Cal., testified his home adjoined that of Mrs. Lou Pringle, mother of Eunice, and he had known the Pringles for about two years.

"Do you know Nicholas Duneav?" the witness was asked.

"Yes, sir."

"How many times have you seen him in Garden Grove?"

"About 50 or 75 times," he replied.

This contradicted the testimony of Miss Pringle's mother, who declared Duneav had not been at their Garden Grove home more than four or five times.

Questions by defense counsel, intended to contradict the testimony of Miss Pringle, that Duneav and Miss Pringle had been close associates and to thus bear out the defense contention of a conspiracy to blackmail Pantages, were successfully opposed by the prosecution.

New Production Peak.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Oklahoma City district was said to have a new production peak today with 17 wells flowing a total of 78,470 barrels. This compares with 76,431 barrels from 16 wells yesterday. The additional well was the Sinclair No. 1, a Stamper which turned out 3,725 barrels of oil and an estimated 5,000 barrels of water.

New Oklahoma City Well.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas Company's No. 3, a 24-in. well in NWC NE 24-1-3W, the Oklahoma City field, blew in shortly after noon today and operators estimated it was good for from 700 to 800 barrels an hour. The well was making an estimated fifty million feet of gas.

LAD KILLED BY WIRE.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Fred Marriott, 19, of Chandler, was killed almost instantly today in the Oklahoma City oil field when his motor car crashed into a taut wire stretched across a roadway. His neck was broken. The wire had been stretched to keep traffic out of the danger zone of an oil well being drilled in.

WILD CAR KILLS TWO.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Two persons were killed today by a loaded coal car that ran wildly down the tracks on the Martin Branch of the Pennsylvania railroad and crashed into the Hotel Waldorf at Portage. The victims, Mrs. Anne Skelley, 70, and August Heas, proprietor of the hotel, were killed as they sat in the building.

FORTIFIED ARSENAL, RADIO STATION AND MEN ARE CAPTURED

Montauk Point into a trap where a coast guard patrol boat lay in wait.

Arsenal in Mansion.

The arsenal was located in a mansion formerly owned by Oscar Hammerstein, Jr. Its 20 rooms were fitted like a club. In the basement, the raiders found tunnels leading to underground vaults in which liquor was stored and where a quantity of machine guns and a quantity of explosives were hidden.

The cupola on top of the mansion was equipped with telescopes and was apparently used as a lookout tower from where the smugglers could watch for the arrival of the One of the raids was made on what the agents said was the New York headquarters of the syndicate in West 43rd street. Here, the federal men said, members of the organization met regularly to divide the profits of the business and discuss plans. The other raids were on landing stations, storage houses and distribution points.

Patrick Conroy, clerk at the Ambassador hotel in Atlantic City, was arrested as a contract man for the syndicate.

Million Dollar Outfit.

William J. Calhoun, prohibition administrator for New Jersey, in charge of the raids in his state, said the syndicate was a "million dollar outfit" which operated a fleet of six ships between St. Pierre and Bermuda and an auxiliary fleet of ten speed boats.

The ships passing close inshore along the New Jersey coast were met by the speedboats, which took off cargoes of liquor and ran them to shore. "Unofficial estimates placed the amount of liquor brought in at 10,000 cases a week.

Alleged members of the gang were arrested by federal agents in several New Jersey towns and taken to Trenton for arraignment.

The raids extended over a 200-mile front.

New Foreign Connections.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Foreign agencies, in England and in Canada, were linked today by federal attorneys with the $1,000,000 smuggling syndicate whose fortified arsenal, radio station, and warehouse extending all the way from Highlands, N. J., to Atlantic City were simultaneously raided by federal agents and New Jersey state troopers last night.

U. S. Attorney Charles H. Tuttle and Assistant U. S. Attorney Robert Watts referred to the syndicate as "an international ring, with agencies in England, Canada and elsewhere."

At the same time they revealed that the syndicate operated not only along the Jersey coast but practically controlled all illegal importation of liquor from Maine to the Virginia capes.

The fourth quarterly conference, closing the church business for the conference year, will be held by the Rev. A. W. Hall, in North Corsicana church Saturday evening Oct. 19th at 7 o'clock. All members of both Methodist congregations in North Corsicana will find much good in this meeting. All members of the quarterly conference are expected to be present. Written accounts of the year's work will be read. Rev. Hall will preach preceding the conference. Everyone is invited to join with us in this service.

SENATOR BINGHAM TAKES BLAME FOR TARIFF ADVISER

"Certainly, there is no secret of that."

Bingham then said if there was anything "wrong with it, the fault is mine."

"Well, do you think there was anything wrong with it?" asked Caraway.

"Possibly I made a mistake," said Bingham, adding if he had known it was "considered proper for government employees who were hired to do one job to be used by senators to help do another job" he probably would not have asked the Manufacturers Association to "loan" him a man.

Walsh and Bingham Clash.

Walsh asked Bingham about the exclusion of secretaries from the finance committee room, and after several exchanges Bingham suggested the Montanan call Chairman Smoot.

"You came here to make a statement," Walsh shot back, and Bingham, who had asked Mr. Egan secretaries were in the position as his own, and all were regularly on government pay. He added the secretaries were all ejected from the committee room because a senator believed one of them was "leaking information."

"Then your secretary was no different from the others and all were put out because of the 'leak'?" asked Senator Walsh.

"Yes," Bingham answered.

As Walsh interrupted one of Bingham's replies, the Connecticut senator interposed, "If the senator will not be so sarcastic and will permit me to answer I will appreciate it."

Must Ask Egan.

Responding to another inquiry about the tariff rates Bingham asked any questions?" asked Caraway.

"Undoubtedly," replied Bingham. "Then he did help write the bill."

"Well, any one writing a letter to a senator giving him information then helps to write legislation."

Demands Answer.

Walsh and Bingham quarreled heatedly when the Montanan demanded a "yes or no" answer to a question as to whether the senate finance committee did not cut down the house tariff rate on wool to the existing rate.

Bingham started to reply with a "because" several times as Walsh shot back, "yes or no."

"Don't answer if you can't answer as requested," Walsh finally interrupted.

"Yes," Bingham shouted. "The senator knows that, and I object to his manner of examination."

Senator Walsh told Bingham he could make any explanation he cared after first giving a direct answer to questions.

"Why is the senator asking about these tariff rates?" inquired Bingham.

"I want to find out how effective Mr. Egan's work has been," retorted Walsh.

"Does the senator insinuate the lobbying, so-called of Mr. Egan was improper?" asked Bingham.

"I am not under inquiry," responded Walsh, "and I don't know the facts. I am now trying to learn them."

AMERICANS WIN POINT IN FOREIGN BANK MANAGEMENT

BADEN-BADEN, Germany, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The American delegation to the Bank of International Settlements Conference, led by M. A. Traylor, of Chicago, today won its fight for the adoption of a veto clause having particular bearing on the position of the federal reserve bank.

The clause places the federal reserve bank in the position of never having to assent to any international bank operation or of having to dissent unless it so wishes and yet at the same time prevents the bank from doing anything contrary to federal reserve policies.

The conference also adopted the final text of the permissive international bank functions, but the press sub-committee has not divulged details, saying the provisions generally are those already contained in the annex to the Young plan outlining the bank's proposed functions.

Santa Fe President Denies Movement To Trade Trackage

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17.—(AP)—W. B. Storey of Chicago, president of the Atchison & Santa Fe railroad denied today in a telegram to the Star-Telegram that a movement was on foot to trade 102 miles of Santa Fe trackage between Dallas and Paris for the use of 226 miles of Frisco road between Fort Worth and Menard. The purported transaction was mentioned in press dispatches. J. M. Kurn of St. Louis, president of the Frisco system, also denied the move in a telegram yesterday.

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Two men suspected of being members of a gang of safe burglars which had worked extensively in Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth and several other cities have been arrested here. Their arrest followed that of another member of the alleged gang in Houston. One of the suspects held here signed a confession, officials said.

LIABILITY LIQUOR PURCHASER MUST BE TESTED IN COURTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Attorney General Mitchell said today a determination of the liability to arrest of the purchaser of bootleg liquor could be obtained only through the arrest and conviction for actual purchase and then the carrying of the case to the supreme court.

He expressed belief no pending case would provide a proper test and that since the recently discussed Philadelphia case, in which the court of appeals held the buyer not liable, was based upon conspiracy to violate the law through buying it did not constitute a thorough test.

Carrying the case through the various courts to the highest tribunal, he pointed out, would take many months.

Mitchell refused to express an opinion on the question. He said he had turned the request of Senator Sheppard, democrat, Texas, for an inquiry to determine the purchaser's liability over to the prohibition division for investigation.

RECORDS WITHHELD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Commenting on a report of the federal trade commission that failure of some companies to produce important records was delaying its investigation of public power utilities, financing, Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, said today of additional legislation were necessary senate ought to grant it.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR ELECTION TO BE HELD OCTOBER 22

FIVE IN RACE FOR UNEX- PIRED TERM OF ERNEST COX IN LEGISLATURE

The official ballot has been prepared and the election supplies for the forty-eight voting boxes in Navarro county will be delivered to Sheriff Rufus Pevhouse for delivery to the presiding officers Friday, Clay Nash, county judge, stated Thursday morning concerning the general election to be held in Navarro and Hill counties, comprising the sixteenth representative district October 22, to name a successor to Ernest C. Cox, resigned member of the Texas legislature.

Cox resigned to make his successful race as commander of the Texas American Legion at the recent convention in Port Arthur, Texas.

The official ballot for this election called by proclamation by Dan Moody, governor, will be as follows:

Official Ballot.
"For Representative, 60th Representative district:
"G. C. Hudson.
"Sam Houston Alford.
"A. M. Sims.
"S. M. Turner.

Mr. Hudson is a resident of Corsicana, Navarro county, and the four other candidates are all residents of Hillboro, Hill county.

Start Active Campaign.
Prior to the entering of the race by Mr. Hudson several days ago, practically no interest had been indicated in the approaching election in Navarro county. Mr. Cox, resigned legislator, was a resident of Navarro county. Plans are being made for an active campaign in the interest of Mr. Hudson's candidacy by his friends it has been announced.

It is expected that the vote will be light, but efforts are being made to cause a good vote in Navarro county in order to keep the representation here. The candidate getting the largest number of votes will be declared elected and no runoff campaign will be held as this is a general election.

The polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 7 o'clock.

Voting Precincts
The following are the voting precincts and election judges of the county to hold this election including the entire election personnel and place of voting in the four wards in Corsicana:

LOCAL STORE WILL OBSERVE ELECTRIC LIGHT ANNIVERSARY

Taking an active part in a nationwide campaign, Montgomery-Ward and Company are staging several unique features in connection with the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the incandescent lamp by Thomas Alva Edison, noted electrical wizard.

I. R. Lurker, manager of the Corsicana store, stated Thursday that special window displays would be installed Thursday evening and be exhibited to the public for several days. These window will include replicas of the first lamp and a number of photographs of historic places and events connected with the first demonstration of electric lights, including Edison's laboratory, the first house wired for electric lights and other features.

In the old paper are of interest, and especially a number of reproductions of old woodcut showing the early history of the electric light.

A special interior display will also be erected as a part of the celebration, according to Mr. Lurker. The manager stated that the window displays would be very educational, particularly the contrasting exhibits of the first electrical equipment and modern versions.

WANTS TO TELL HIS FRIENDS OF SARGON

"I've seen Dallas grow from a small town to a great city and I have many friends in Texas. I want them all to know about Sargon, and what it did for me.

Wm. D. VAUGHN
"My stomach was out of order for a long time. Although I was very little, I was often in misery after meals and smothering spells would frequently wake me at night. I was constipated, my blood was thin and my color was as yellow as gold. I had severe pains in my back and sides and my kidneys would get me up all during the night.
"Since taking Sargon, I'm in better health than for years. I eat like a hungry school boy and can digest anything. There's not a pain in my body and I sleep good all night. Sargon has toned up my liver and ended my constipation. Now my skin has a good healthy color and I feel like a new man."

NEW FIRM WILL DISTRIBUTE G. M. HOUSEHOLD GOODS

A new firm has recently opened its doors in Corsicana and will be known as the Hall-Brantley company, distributors of Frigidaire equipment, and other household products of General Motors. The organization was perfected last Saturday and is now doing business.
The firm is composed of C. R. Hall, well-known dealer of Frigidaire and Delco products for many years, and A. L. Brantley, formerly with the Texas Power and Light company. Mr. Brantley came to Corsicana in May, 1928, and had rounded out over five years' service with the power company before entering business for himself.
The brick building formerly housing the Dickson Electric company has been purchased by the new firm and is now being occupied by the firm. Extensive refinishing and trimming will be started immediately and a formal opening will be held when that is completed.

Navarro county will be the exclusive territory of these dealers for their products which will also include Day-Pan radios. Mr. Hall, president of the new company will retain the exclusive agency for Delco lighting systems, and will be in charge of commercial sales of the new firm; Mr. Brantley, vice-president of the company, will have charge of household sales and installation.
All departments of the firm are being re-organized and factory trained men will be in charge of the installation and service. N. L. Birdwell and E. Cook will be included in the various departments. A fully equipped shop will be installed.

Groesbeck Minister Is Named Moderator Limestone Baptists

MEXIA, Oct. 15.—(Sp.)—Rev. J. M. Groesbeck, of Groesbeck, was elected moderator of the Limestone County Baptist Association at the annual associational gathering at Farrar, near here. Rev. A. Poltz, Mexia, counsellor and county missionary. Rev. J. F. Rodgers of Wortham was elected secretary and W. D. Hight of Mexia, treasurer.

CARD OF THANKS.

We are desirous of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to our kind friend and neighbors of Corsicana who so nobly came to our assistance with loving deeds and words of consolation and sympathy in the passing of our dear wife, mother and sister. While our hearts are still sorely grieved at the death of our loved one, the many deeds of kindness, words of sympathy and tokens of love in the beautiful floral offerings were far too assuage our grief. May God's richest blessings rest upon you all who are the wish of

STUNNING TWEED FROCK

PATTERN 1753
Corsicana Daily Sun 15c Practical Pattern

Smartness is achieved in this woolen frock, in trim tailored effect. A rounded neckline repeated in a rounded vestee is quite unusual. The separate skirt is pleated in front, and attached to a band, so that it may be worn with other blouses. Small pockets adorn the under blouse.

Design 1753 may be made of tweed, jersey, covert cloth or velveteen. Tweed mixtures of black, red and white, or brown and beige are delightful. The narrow belt may be made of the dress fabric, or leather may be chosen. If velveteen is used for the frock, we suggest a small print.

May be obtained only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 40.

Size 14 requires 3 yards of 54 inch material.
This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE wanted.

THE FASHION BOOK is FIFTEEN CENTS, but only TEN CENTS when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Daily Sun Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

SEEKS QUIET VISIT
DALLAS, Oct. 17.—(P)—Gov. R. C. "Dick" Dillon of New Mexico has asked that his visit to the state fair here Sunday be cloaked in the deepest obscurity so he will be free to visit the livestock exhibits without the annoyance of shaking too many hands. He will arrive by airplane Sunday noon.

DALLAS WOMAN IS BURIED IN OAKWOOD CEMETERY TODAY

Mrs. Annie Vest, died in Dallas Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock, and the body arrived in Corsicana Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the funeral was held immediately at Oakwood cemetery where interment was made. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Tom Lencx, pastor of the First Christian church.

Surviving are one niece, Mrs. W. A. Crawford, Dallas, with whom she made her home; one brother, Austin Bass, Fort Worth; three sisters, Mrs. John Stewart, Corsicana; Mrs. Henry Hirston, Fort Worth; and Mrs. I. Luce, California.
The funeral was directed by the Corley-McMahon Funeral Home.

CHEVROLET SIX

—the Car of Universal Appeal!

SINCE January 1st, over a million one hundred and thirty-five thousand six-cylinder Chevrolets have been produced. Naturally, this is an outstanding industrial achievement. But it is more than that. It is a great public endorsement of Chevrolet's policy of progress: to build a quality automobile whose design incorporates every possible feature of progressive engineering... whose beauty is distinctive, smart and satisfying... whose reliability is assured by fine materials and precision manufacture... and whose price is so low as to be within reach of the great majority of the people. We want you to know what this policy has meant in the development of the Chevrolet Six—the modern car of universal appeal. We want you to know that Chevrolet has brought within the reach of everybody, everywhere, all the advantages of smooth, six-cylinder performance. Come in today!

MILITARY RULE IN BORGER SCHEDULED TO END THIS WEEK

ADDITIONAL RESIGNATIONS OF OLD OFFICIALS BRING DECISION TO EVACUATE

BORGER, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—The military rule in Borger, Texas, is scheduled to end this week. The commander of Texas National guardsmen enforcing martial law also indicated troops might not be withdrawn by tomorrow or on Thursday, declaring a full group of soldiers would be kept here until a "clean sweep" of offices were made. General Walters said yesterday, after Sheriff Ownbey and Mayor Glenn A. Pace had resigned, that martial law, begun September 30 to break up the "entrenched criminal ring," might be lifted this week.

BORGER, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—Not a single member of the former police forces of Borger and Hutchinson county shall remain in office. Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Walters said here today in denying a report that a whoever gets the job will have to promise that he won't be a candidate for election when his term expires. "No applicant for mayor has been accepted. One citizen committee recommended to me a man whose establishment later was raided, the raiders finding Jamaica ginger there, as well as a shipment to him at the express office. There have been no recommendations since the resignations yesterday." It was believed here a Texas ranger or former ranger might be appointed sheriff. Ranger Sergeant J. B. Wheatley has been serving in that capacity.

BORGER, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—Borger's "army of occupation" looked forward today to marching home again sometime tomorrow or Thursday after a sudden decision of Mayor Glenn A. Pace and Sheriff Joe Ownbey to resign.

Calhoun, commenting on possible successors to the mayor and sheriff said: "There positively will be no one chosen who has been connected with politics in this county, and Attorney Clem Calhoun, had been installed. In announcing the resignations yesterday, Brigadier General Walters said he expected the city commission to resign as soon as it could select a new mayor and asserted all of Ownbey's appointees went out of office automatically with the Sheriff's resignation. The county commissioners court will select the new sheriff, but Walters made it clear the men selected for mayor and a sheriff must meet approval of Calhoun.

In the meantime, Calhoun prepared to put before the grand jury the voluminous record of crime in Borger which a military investigating committee has been collecting ever since martial law was declared. In charging the jury, District Judge E. J. Pickens asked it to bend every effort toward fastening the assassination on Sept. 13 of District Attorney John A. Holmes upon the guilty person. Much evidence collected by the military inquisition concerned this crime and the criminal background which led up to it. Judge Pickens cleared the deck for rapid disposition of his mountainous criminal docket by announcing the first five weeks of the term would be devoted to criminal cases.

Man Held in Dallas.—DALLAS, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—A man arrested here Sunday night on a tip from Borger was still detained in the city jail today, awaiting instructions from Hutchinson county officials.

Freestone Singing Convention Attracts Large Crowd Sunday.—TEAGUE, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—A record-breaking crowd attended the semi-annual meeting of the Freestone County Singing Convention held at Dew Sunday. The large auditorium of the high school building was filled to overflowing. Lunch was served on the ground to the visitors.

Teague Lions Will Play Big Hill Team.—TEAGUE, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—According to Coach Avinger of the Teague High Lions the next game will be with Big Hill. However, this time Avinger is going to play only his second string men. The game will be played on home soil on Oct. 22.

The Lions have a large number out, and they will offer some hearty resistance to a mighty good team, even though it be the second string men.

No Sheriff Selected.—BORGER, Oct. 15.—(P. W. A.)—County Judge H. M. Hood adjourned his court this afternoon until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, saying no announcement of a new sheriff would be made until then.

Oil and Gas Lease.—R. M. McCarter, et ux, to Simms Oil company, 50 acres of the Solomon L. Johnson survey, $10.

Marriage Licenses.—Cecil Norris and Bertha Ellen Nutt. J. C. Echols and Mary Young. T. L. Williamson and Clyde Mae Holloway.
